WALKING HORSE OWNERS' ASSOCIATION

ABOUT WHOA

The Walking Horse Owners Association (WHOA), headquartered in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, was founded in 1976 to represent the interests in all matters pertaining to the sound Tennessee Walking Horse. WHOA's goals are to advocate for fair and equal treatment of all members and to promote and protect the welfare of the breed. WHOA develops and supports programs that increase the value of Tennessee Walking Horses and enhances members experiences with their horses.

WHAT WE DO

Since its inception, WHOA has been committed to the interests of Tennessee Walking Horse owners and the Walking Horse industry. That commitment remains just as strong today as WHOA remains a strong voice for honesty, integrity and fairness in our industry.

WHOA promotes many walking horse events such as the International Grand Championships and supports many other one night shows, trail rides, programs, and clinics. WHOA was on the forefront of promoting the plantation pleasure division and continues that tradition today through the Register of Merit program, a series of versatility shows, and a versatility high point program. WHOA has also sponsored the Academy Program, promoting the Tennessee Walking Horse to our youth.

Members of WHOA enjoy eligibility in many different high point programs, access to a variety of other programs, corporate discounts at many retailers, and much more; but the real reason to maintain a membership in WHOA is to insure that the best interests of this great breed and their custodians, we the owners, are perpetuated.

OUR GOALS

- REPRESENT the interests of all matters pertaining to the Tennessee Walking Horse.
- ADVOCATE for fair play and equal treatment of all members.
